GAPA FUND
2021 ANNUAL REPORT

Dear Friends,

2021 was a season for renewal. We slowly but surely lifted ourselves from the quarantine of the past and set our sights on reconnecting, on growth and development, and on rising to the challenges that we are facing in this time of tremendous polarization.

We started singing again. With funding from California Humanities, our theatre group launched the first part of Hearts and Minds to engage our community and explore the political and personal experiences that have shaped our lives. With a generous grant from Mr. Jack Dorsey's #startsmall public fund, our 501(c)(4) affiliate GAPA is set to build and expand on its 34 years of civic engagement and advocacy.

More than ever, this is our time to step up and step forward for women's rights, for LGBTQ+ rights, and for Asian and Pacific Islander American wellness. We are here for you. Thank you for your continued support in ensuring that our stories are told and that we thrive and live lives of dignity, to be seen, heard, and celebrated.

In gratitude,

Oliver V. Cácananta
